Community Highlight — Get Excited Party Rentals

Built on Faith, Family & Community

For Get Excited Party Rentals, the business has always been about more than simply providing rentals for a celebration. It is about faith, family, community, and helping people create memories they can hold onto long after the party is over.

“BUILT ON FAITH, FAMILY, AND A HEART FOR THE COMMUNITY.”

Established in 2017, Get Excited Party Rentals began when Anthony and TinaMarie found themselves wanting something different for their lives. They were tired of working for someone else and not having enough time to spend together. After praying about their future, they decided it was time to build something of their own.

“SOMETIMES FAITH MEANS TRUSTING GOD ENOUGH TO BUILD THE LIFE YOU’VE BEEN PRAYING FOR.”

Faith has remained at the center of their journey from the very beginning.

“What inspired us was God. We put God first in everything we do.”

That commitment is even reflected on their business cards, which have carried the Lord’s Prayer on the back since day one.

“THEIR BUSINESS WAS BUILT WITH PRAYER AT THE FOUNDATION AND FAITH AT THE CENTER.”

Today, Get Excited Party Rentals offers a variety of items designed to help make celebrations successful, memorable, and unforgettable. Their addition of a photo booth has brought even more laughter and excitement to the experience, giving families and guests something they can look back on and remember for years to come.

But what stands out most about Anthony and TinaMarie is their heart for people.

They especially enjoy helping seniors, children, and members of the community, and they believe that even a helping hand can make a difference when it is given with love.

Their goal is simple: provide first-class customer service, bring smiles to people's faces, put love in their hearts, and continue showing up for the community whenever they can.

“THEIR GREATEST SERVICE IS NOT WHAT THEY PROVIDE — IT’S THE WAY THEY SHOW UP FOR PEOPLE WITH LOVE.”

TINAMARIE - 1939 CHEVY MASTER DELUXE

ANTHONY - 1951 MASTER DELUXE

When they are not working an event or helping families celebrate, Anthony and TinaMarie enjoy another passion they share together — the lowrider lifestyle. Both have lowriders of their own, and in their downtime they love cruising, spending time around the lowrider community, and enjoying the culture that has also become an important part of their lives. For Anthony and TinaMarie, community is not only part of their business — it is part of who they are.

Get Excited Party Rentals is a reminder that when a business begins with faith, love, and a desire to serve others, its impact can reach far beyond the celebration itself.

FROM THE EDITOR

Sometimes People Remember the Smallest Acts of Love

There are moments in life that come back to us years later and remind us that the things we do for people often mean more than we ever realize.

Recently, I asked my friend Tina if she would help sponsor an event. She looked at me and said something I will never forget.

She told me, “Sad girl, I will always be there for you. I will always help you in any way I can.”

Then she reminded me of something I had honestly never thought much about.

During COVID, Tina became extremely sick. She reminded me that while she was sick, I was not afraid to go see her. I went over and brought her albóndigas.

To me, I was simply bringing food to somebody I cared about.

But to Tina, it became a memory she carried with her.

She told me she would never forget that I showed up for her when she was so sick, and that I had done it simply out of the kindness of my heart.

That conversation stayed with me.

Sometimes we do things for people and move on without ever realizing the impact it had. A meal. A phone call. A ride. Sitting beside someone. Checking on them. Showing up when everybody else is afraid or unsure of what to do.

We may think it was something small.

To the person receiving it, it may have meant everything.

And that is something I want La Palabra to continue representing — community is not only about the big events, the organizations, or the people whose names everybody knows.

Community is also found in a pot of albóndigas taken to somebody who is sick.

It is found in checking on your neighbor.

It is found in asking somebody if they are okay.

It is found in simply being there.

Because the truth is, you never know what someone else is going through.

So when you have the opportunity to show somebody kindness, do it.

You may forget the moment.

But they may remember it forever.

KINDNESS

“KINDNESS IS SHOWING UP WITH LOVE, EVEN WHEN NO ONE IS ASKING YOU TO.”

Sometimes the smallest act can become the memory someone carries forever.

A meal.

A phone call.

A helping hand.

A moment of compassion.

Kindness costs us very little, but to someone going through a hard season, it can mean everything.

We never truly know what another person may be carrying behind their smile, their silence, or the way they move through the day.

That is why kindness matters.

Show up when you can.

Check on people.

Give with love.

Offer grace.

Because sometimes the smallest thing you do for someone becomes something they never forget.
